

JUDGE SENTENCES HUSBAND TO PAY $30 EACH WEEK

Marvin Hart Must Contribute To The Support of Wife and Son

WEISS IN CONTEMPT

Joseph Di Salvo Fails To Answer a Non-Support Charge

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 27—Marvin Hart, 27-year-old Croydon tap-room proprietor, whose wife, Angella Hart, 911 Mansion street, Bristol, testified he earned between $500 and $600 a week, was sentenced by Judge Calvin S. Boyer to pay a support order of $30 a week for the support of his estranged wife and son.

Judge Boyer, who warned Hart about keeping company with another woman, who was termed a "homewrecker" by the defendant's wife, severely reprimanded Hart for his ideas about married life. The Harts were married June 21, 1912, and separated last February.

The defendant-husband, who denied that he and his partner made $500 to $600 a week in the tap-room, placed the income between $300 and $400. "My take is between $50 and $75 a week," said the defendant.

James J. Weiss, formerly of Bristol, who was in jail 49 weeks because he violated a support order and was held in contempt of court, was discharged on condition that he pay an order of $10 a week for the support of his two daughters.

Mrs. Rose DiSalvo, 1027 Wood street, Bristol, who appeared in court, but her husband, Joseph DiSalvo, 3601 Ithaca street, Philadelphia, didn't, to answer a non-support charge, was informed by the Court that legal action will be taken.

Grand Jury Makes Several Recommendations

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 27—Submitting its report before President Judge Hiram H. Keller and Judge Calvin S. Boyer, the Grand Jury for the November sessions of criminal court announced that it acted on 22 bills of indictment, of which all were found to be true bills.

Filed in Quarter Sessions Court, the report follows:

"On visiting the County Prison we found everything in a very sanitary and acceptable condition.

"We recommend that the children at the County Home be housed in separate quarters. We recommend that a nurses' home be provided for the nurses and paid employees away from the inmates. We recommend that the dairy be replenished as soon as possible to at least provide sufficient dairy products to supply the home.

"We recommend that the Prothonotary's office, No. 2, in the basement be assigned to their use only and cabinets be provided as needed and keys be given to the Prothonotary.

"We recommend that cushions in the Court House be replenished and the walls be redecorated. The addition to the Court House should be provided as soon as possible.

"The main chimney should be repaired immediately and the gutters in the roof also need attention," stated the report which concluded with thanks to the Court and Assistant District Attorney Willard S. Curtin for their assistance and efficient co-operation.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Plans were speeded yesterday to resume shipping along the East Coast tomorrow morning in the event that striking members of the International Longshoremen's Association voted today to end their 18-day-old walkout.

The most recent attempt by President Truman of the United Nations Security Council to resolve the Berlin issue appeared doomed to failure.

The Germans writing the constitution for the Western German state were warned by the three Western Military Governors that their objective must be "democratic decentralized federal government" and that any constitution calling for too much centralization would be rejected.

A resolution reproving South Africa for her refusal to put the adjacent territory of South-West Africa under the United Nations trusteeship system was adopted by the General Assembly, 43 to 1.

The negotiations by the United Nations for an armistice in southern Palestine were deadlocked, with little chance seen for a break until the Security Council's Nov. 11 resolution, calling for withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Negeb, is cancelled.

Morrisville "Grads" Set Good Records

MORRISVILLE, Nov. 27—Two Morrisville High School graduates of 1947, now in the service, have recently compiled outstanding records.

Charles W. Elcock, fireman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Elcock of 472 Stockham Avenue, returned Wednesday to Navy duty at Norfolk where he will leave immediately for Puerto Rico. Elcock spent 10 days here. He recently graduated from engineering school at Great Lakes Naval Training Station as honor man of his class.

Private First Class Thomas Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter I. Phillips, of 457 North Delmar Avenue, was one of 14 recruits at the U. S. Marine Base at Parris Island, S. C. to make 65 platoon points. Phillips, a former Morrisville High School athlete, will leave here today for Camp Lejeune, N. C., where he will go to school for maps and drawings. He is in the first infantry, Second Marine Division.

Suggests Receipts From Football Be Given Squad

In discussing the possibility of a football game between Bristol and Bensalem high school teams to decide the championship, it was suggested this morning by Vito Delia, police officer, that the game be played for the benefit of the Bucks County Rescue Squad.

"The squad does a fine piece of work," says Delia, "and if this game should be played, it will just be an extra game for the two teams, and one on which they had not counted."

TEA SALESMAN IS A HOLD-UP VICTIM AT WINDER VILLAGE

Leonard Samnosa, Trenton, Is Robbed of $18.94 On Road

MAN STOPPED HIS CAR

Salesman Had Been Delivering and Making Collections

A tea salesman reports that he was held up on Rogers Road, Bristol Township early last evening, and robbed of $18.94. The victim of the hold-up is Leonard Samnosa, 27, 237 Center st., Trenton, N. J.

Samnosa, salesman for the Great American Tea Co., reported the hold-up at about 6:45 or 20 minutes after he said it happened. He walked into Bristol police headquarters and told of the incident to Officer John Chichiletti, who was on duty at the time.

Samnosa informed police that he had been making deliveries in the Winder Village area and was driving out of Ford Road onto the side of the new concrete highway being constructed between Route 13 and Bath Road. He said that a big Buick car was standing along the road and a man waved him down. Having been misled in about the same spot a few days ago Samnosa said that he thought perhaps the driver of the Buick was in the same predicament. "I stopped my truck," and the man pulled open the door of my truck and asked for my money," Samnosa is quoted as telling the police. The hold-up man held one hand in his coat pocket and Samnosa became so nervous that he failed to get a description of either the man or the car.

Chichiletti radioed Chief Joseph Seader of the Bristol Township Police who at once started an investigation.

Two Affairs Outlined By Newportville Group

NEWPORTVILLE, Nov. 27—A meeting of the Cheerful Workers of Newportville Community Church—Presbyterian, was held in the church basement on Monday evening. Mrs. Esther Dornin being hostess. Mrs. Fred Kohler, Sr., opened the meeting with prayer, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Ella Munchback.

Plans were made to hold a bazaar and bake sale on Dec. 4th from two to eight p. m. in the church basement. Refreshments will also be on sale. Arrangements were made for the "Luncheon is Served" program which is to be held in Newportville Free Co. station on Dec. 6th at noon. There will be "movies" and door prizes, also samples given.

For those having children, a baby sister will care for the children in the primary room of the church. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

INFANT BURIED

NEWPORTVILLE, Nov. 27—Burial occurred in Beechwood Cemetery, Hulmeville, this morning at 11 o'clock, for the infant daughter of William H. and Marian C. Davidson, of Maple and Pine avenues, Fergusonsville. The baby died Wednesday at the time of her birth in Frankford Hospital, Philadelphia. Burial arrangements were in charge of the Faust funeral home, Hulmeville.

BASIC INFLATION

The United States is up against the worst danger in its whole history in a subject which is largely ignored and generally misunderstood.

That menace is inflation. Inflation has undermined more nations, and destroyed the security and prospects of more races of people, than war and pestilence combined.

It is an economic cancer that, identified early, can be cured—but if disregarded too long, is fatal.

The most tragic mistake for anyone to make about cancer is to assume that it is "just a sore."

The most tragic mistake a nation can make about inflation is that there is nothing more to it than high prices.

Prices frequently rise without basic inflation. There was no basic inflation in this nation immediately after the first world war, for example, yet many food prices skyrocketed.

Ninety nine per cent of the public discussions of high prices assume that they are high because of profiteering, or real or artificial scarcities, or faulty distribution.

This is looking at the results rather than the causes. For the National Government to offer remedies that go no further than high prices is to treat the symptoms, not the disease.

The big reason why a dollar now will buy only half or a third as much as a few years ago has a great deal less to do with profiteering, supplies, etc., than it has to do with the fact that the dollar itself isn't WORTH what it used to be.

Once every dollar of money in the U. S. A. had seventy cents worth of gold (price fixed on open market) back of it. Now the money has no gold back of it—not in the sense that you can take the paper dollar and swap it for gold; it has been made contrary to law to possess monetized gold.

The American government nearly sixteen years ago took the gold and began doing tricks with it. We tried to corner the world's gold stocks—just why, no one really knows. Arbitrary upward values were fixed for the gold. All sorts of other juggling took place. Today no one can be certain just how much gold Uncle Sam actually owns, or what it would bring at a forced sale.

DEFER SENTENCE SO MAN MAY BE EXAMINED

Feel Gardenville Carpenter Who Stole Goods Needs Hospitalization

CHARACTER IS 'GOOD'

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 27—A Gardenville carpenter who pleaded guilty Monday before Judge Hiram H. Keller in criminal court to six charges of burglary and one charge of larceny, in connection with the theft of building materials which he used to place in his own house that he was building, couldn't explain why he committed the crimes.

Charged with the crimes is Lawrence Anderson, 45, who enjoyed a very excellent reputation until he started in a series of crimes according to friends who testified in his behalf.

Judge Hiram H. Keller has deferred disposition of the case of Anderson, he stated that steps will be taken to have the man admitted to a hospital for a thorough mental examination first. There was evidence in the case to indicate that Anderson needs hospitalization, it is stated.

Mrs. Anderson, wife of the defendant, stated that her husband suffered a nervous breakdown in 1945, when their only son entered the armed services, the son later suffering from rheumatic fever.

"He had no reason to steal, we had plenty," Mrs. Anderson testified. "I noticed a great change in my husband about the time that he started to build the house. He told us that he had bought the various things he brought home, and we didn't think anything about it because it was not unusual for him to do that."

ASK THAT TEST SITE BE CHANGED FROM LOCATION HERE

Residents of Sixth Ward Area Claim Learners Are An Annoyance

DAMAGE PAVEMENTS

Gasoline Fumes Obnoxious and Young Trees Are Damaged

Objection is being registered against conducting tests for drivers of motor vehicles in the vicinity of Radcliffe, Monroe, Taylor and Wood streets, in the sixth ward. State Police have, for quite some time been conducting these tests in that vicinity, and apparently it is not the tests that cause so much complaint, as it is the inexperienced drivers who go to the area to practice before taking the tests.

The tests are held every Tuesday from 9:30 a. m. to three p. m., and a large number of drivers from all sections of lower Bucks County and even from Philadelphia come here to qualify for their licenses.

The drivers are lined up on Radcliffe street at Fillmore, and then as they proceed to take the tests they operate their cars down Radcliffe to Taylor, turning right into Taylor, and then left into Wood street. On Wood street, in front of the hall of the Sons of Italy, the operator is compelled to turn his car around in the center of the street, and then drive a zig-zag course around obstructions on Fillmore street, after which he turns left and proceeds to Radcliffe and Monroe streets.

The complaint is that the drivers are in the vicinity all hours of the night, Sundays, and during the evenings, practicing for the tests. Their cars are backed against the curbing and in some instances over the curbing. The discharge of fumes from the exhausts kills the grass along the curb line, it is stated, and one resident claims that he has had to replace several young trees.

Some protests have been written to borough council and the police department is contacting the State police in an endeavor to have the location for the tests moved to a site where there are no houses.

A Courier reporter learned today that most of the objections are about the learners. The pavement in front of the residence of Nick Marsaglia, 109 Taylor st., has been damaged and the family claims that the odor of gasoline is an annoyance. The lawn has also been damaged.

At the residence of Phillip Paoletta, Wood and Taylor sts., it was stated that those learning to operate the cars are a danger to young children.

The student drivers back up on the curb and knock over young trees. Those at the residence of Peter Cimino, Fillmore and Wood streets say the drivers are a danger to young children.

At the residence of Peter Cimino, Fillmore and Wood sts., the conducting of tests in the area is an annoyance. The drivers back up against trees and the fumes from the exhausts kills the grass.

Others state that the gasoline fumes in summer time are blown into the houses through open doors and windows.

BENSALEM MAY PLAY BRISTOL TO DECIDE HONORS

The Lower Bucks County football conference having ended in a deadlock, fans are now debating whether or not a post-season game should be played between the deadlocked schools, Bristol and Bensalem, to decide the crown.

Head Coach Harry McClister and Assistant Coach Jerry Bloom, of the Warriors, have both expressed a desire to meet the Owls in another game to decide the title. There is a possibility of the athletic associations of the schools getting together when school convenes on Monday.

Early in the season, Bristol and Bensalem played to a 6-6 tie.

The final standing of the league was as follows:

	Won	Lost	Tied
Bensalem	2	0	1
Bristol	2	0	1
Morrisville	1	2	0
Langhorne	0	3	0

BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO OPEN HERE DEC. 12

The Bristol Basketball League will open its season on Sunday afternoon, December 12th, on the Rohm and Haas floor. This was decided at a meeting held in the Diamond Sporting Goods Store. Games will also be played on the Bristol high school floor.

At a meeting to be held next Wednesday night, the managers will decide which new teams will enter the league. Another application has been received, that of the Hooper team, of Morrisville.

Place Proper Address On Each Christmas Card

Meet the man who's going to receive several thousand cheery Christmas greeting cards this year—and is very unhappy about the whole situation.

He has charge of the post office's undeliverable mail—"nixies," in the colorful jargon of the mail carriers.

Last year, the local post office played reluctant host to a large quantity of other people's holiday mail, left homeless because of faulty addressing. Nationally, the toll of undeliverable Christmas cards, letters, and packages ran into the millions.

Postmaster Joseph P. Duffy points out that careless addressing spells trouble for the sender, as well as extra headaches for postal clerks at a season when they're already working around the clock to keep the holiday mails moving.

"Each year, thousands of long friendships suddenly turn chilly when an eagerly-awaited Christmas card or gift fails to arrive," he observes. So if you want to keep your colorful and warm-hearted Christmas greetings from coming to rest in the Dead Letter Office this year, you'd better heed the postmaster's detailed advice for Yuletide mailings.

Trio of Motorists Are Fined for Violations

NEW HOPE, Nov. 27—Three motorists, one charged with driving his car with an improper inspection sticker, another for failing to bring a car to a halt at a stop sign and another for speeding, paid fines when given hearings before Justice of the Peace Donald E. DeLacey, here.

The motorist charged with operating a car without proper inspection sticker is Vincent Cinque, Farmingdale, N. Y., who was arrested by Trooper M. H. Aulenbach, Doylestown. Pleading guilty to the charge, Cinque paid a fine of $2 and costs amounting to $3.50.

Ruth Becroft, of this place, was arrested by Trooper Leo Preitz, of the Doylestown barracks of the State Police, for failure to bring her car to a halt at the intersection of Stockton avenue and Bridge street. She also entered a plea of guilty, and paid a fine of $5 and costs amounting to $3.77.

The most severe penalty of the three was imposed on Carroll S. Carter, Soudersburg, who was arrested by Lewis A. Brown, of the Interstate Bridge Police, for driving his car in excess of 15 miles an hour over the Delaware river bridge, between this place and Lambertville. He also entered a plea of guilty, and paid a fine of $10 and $3.50 costs.

Emotional Moment

LEARNING that her son Robert Jr., 12, had been spared the ordeal of testifying in a divorce action brought by his father, Mrs. Helen Ewen (above) breaks into tears in a New York court. Her husband, Robert Ewen, a navy veteran, has charged her with indiscretions involving New York State Assemblyman Joseph Brinster. On the stand, Brinster had previously testified that he had once kissed Mrs. Ewen at a party where kisses were not taken seriously. (International)

STACKHOUSE NAMED PENNA. CHIEFS' HEAD

Elected President of Fire Chiefs at Session in Collingdale

500 ATTEND BANQUET

A well-known Bucks Countyman who has been active in volunteer firemen's circles for 32 years—William L. Stackhouse, Doylestown—has been named president of Pennsylvania Fire Chiefs' Association. Mr. Stackhouse is assistant county detective.

Mr. Stackhouse, who is president of the Bucks County Firemen's Association, served as fire marshal of the county for 18 years. He has been a member of the State Fire Chiefs' Association for 28 years.

State President Stackhouse, who said the fire chiefs' group meets twice a year, explained more than 600 men are members.

Other Bucks county firemen, who attended the recent meeting at Collingdale when Stackhouse was honored and given statewide recognition for his more than a quarter-century's activities among firemen, included Luther Yost, Silverdale; Lloyd Y. Crouthamel, Dublin; former Doylestown Fire Company Chief Frank Stover, now of Reading, and Chief Leonard Roberts of the Trevose Fire Company.

The program included a speaker from the Philadelphia Navy Yard who spoke on fighting chemical fires, a demonstration by the Esso Corporation on vapors, gases and gasoline; a display of fire apparatus from the fifth district, which is Delaware county, and a school children's safety demonstration.

More than 500 attended a banquet, concluding the activities, in Collingdale Fire Co. Station, No. 2.

People Who Influence Children

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

EVERY one of us parents could name some persons who have meant more to us and our children than we could ever tell. Perhaps our children will in years to come hold these precious persons in great esteem and tell their own children and grandchildren about them.

As a rule, these great persons live and work and serve without glamor. Rarely will their names be found in the social register or appear in the social columns of a newspaper. No one will hear their names shouted at a gathering through a megaphone. Nor are they often rich in this world's goods. Yet they were not "born to blush unseen. And waste their sweetness on the desert air." Nevertheless, in the popular sense, some of them may have been like the maid described by Wordsworth:

"She dwelt among the untrodden ways

Beside the spring of Dove,

A maid whom there was none to praise

And very few to love.

"A violet by a mossy stone

Half hidden from the eye!

Fair as a star, when only one

Is shining in the sky.

"She lived unknown, and few

could know
